

Dear Mum

I love you lot's and lot's and that you now that there are lot's of people out there that give us lot's of support and you now mum there are lot's of people out there fitting for the truth as well and just in case you forgot there are thousand's of people that now the real truth and it might even take forty year's but in the end it doesn't matter because the truth all way's come's out